A Message from the Metropolitan Archbishops of the Catholic Church in England regarding the resumption of collective worship in England:

Dear Brothers and sisters in Christ,

Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. On Tuesday we heard the announcement that, from 4 July this year, places of worship will be able to reopen for prayer and services. We welcome this news with great joy. Since the lockdown began, members of all faiths have faced restrictions on how they have been able to celebrate important religious festivals. Our own experience of Easter was unlike any other we have known. Now, in our churches and with our people, we can look forward again to celebrating the central mysteries of our faith in the Holy Eucharist.

The recent reopening of our churches for individual private prayer was an important milestone on our journey towards resuming communal worship. Our churches that have opened have put in place all the measures needed to ensure the risks of virus transmission are minimised. This includes effective hand sanitisation, social distancing and cleaning. We remain committed to making sure these systems of hygiene and infection control meet Government and public health standards.

We want to thank everyone within the Catholic community for sustaining the life of faith in such creative ways, not least in the family home. We thank our priests for celebrating Mass faithfully for their people and for the innovative ways in which they have enabled participation through live-streaming and other means. We are grateful for the pastoral care shown by our clergy to those for whom this time of lockdown has been especially difficult and in particular, towards those who have been bereaved. We recognise too the chaplaincy services that have played a vital role in supporting those most in need. Gaining from the experience of all that we have been through and bringing those lessons into the future, we must now look forward.

With the easing of restrictions on worship with congregations, we tread carefully along the path that lies ahead. Our lives have been changed by the experience of the pandemic and it is clear that we cannot simply return to how things were before lockdown. We remain centred on the Lord Jesus and His command at the Last Supper to "do this in memory of me." We must now rebuild what it means to be Eucharistic communities, holding fast to all that we hold dear, while at the same time exploring creative ways to meet changed circumstances.

It is important to reaffirm that, at present, the obligation to attend Sunday Mass remains suspended. A significant number of churches may remain closed as they are unable to meet the requirements for opening for individual prayer. Fulfilling these requirements is a precondition for any church opening after the 4th July for the celebration of Mass with a congregation.

Please be aware that there will be a limit on the number of people who can attend Mass in our churches. This will be determined locally in accordance with social distancing requirements. We therefore need to reflect carefully on how and when we might be able to attend Mass. We cannot return immediately to our customary practices. This next step is not, in any sense, a moment when we are going 'back to normal'.

We ask every Catholic to think carefully about how and when they will return to Mass. Our priests may need to consider whether it is possible to celebrate additional Masses at the weekends. Given there is no Sunday obligation, we ask you to consider the possibility of attending Mass on a weekday. This will ease the pressure of numbers for Sunday celebrations and allow a gradual return to the Eucharist for more people.

Moving forward, there will still be many people who cannot attend Mass in person. We therefore ask parishes, wherever possible, to continue live-streaming Sunday Mass, both for those who remain shielding and vulnerable and also for those unable to leave home because of advanced age or illness.

When we return to Mass there will be some differences in how the celebration takes place. For the time being, there will be no congregational singing and Mass will be shorter than usual. None of this detracts from the centrality of our encounter with the Risen Christ in the Eucharist. We ask everyone to respect and follow the guidance that will be issued and the instructions in each church.

"As I have loved you," said the Lord Jesus, "so you must love each other." (Jn 13:34) The lockdown has brought forth remarkable acts of charity, of loving kindness, from Catholics across our communities as they have cared for the needy and vulnerable.

We have seen love in action through charitable works and through the service of many front-line keyworkers who are members of our Church. Now we can begin to return to the source of that charity, Christ himself, present for us sacramentally, body, blood, soul and divinity, in Holy Communion. As we prepare to gather again to worship, let us, respectful of each other, come together in thanksgiving to God for the immense gift of the Holy Eucharist. Yours devotedly in Christ,

✠Vincent Cardinal Nichols Archbishop of Westminster

✠Malcolm McMahon OP Archbishop of Liverpool

✠Bernard Longley Archbishop of Birmingham

✠John Wilson Archbishop of Southwark

Father Eddy adds: Thank you to the Archbishops for their supportive and encouraging message. I hope that in our parish we will be able to resume our usual weekend Mass programme from the weekend of 11/12 July. However it will not be a 'return to normal'. We will only be able to accommodate a limited number of people at each Mass and people will need to book a place in advance. Further information will be available next weekend but please be aware that this will have to be the case.

St Peter & St Paul Catholic Voluntary Academy are currently undertaking a piece of work to review the Academy mission statement. 'I have come that they may have life and have it to the full' (John 10:10).

There will be an emphasis on virtues and whenever the mission statement is displayed selected virtues will be displayed beneath it. To that end the school would be grateful if you could take the time to complete the survey that can be found at:

<https://forms.office.com/Pages/ResponsePage.aspx?id=dEmSRhZ4UmBcwJd1ENgamgR6fOkNEpYB27h64NrZUMDBXRvHcOTc0Sk44T1VET0VEQUZaTtk2Qj4u> Please complete by Friday 3rd July at 2pm. This will allow us as a parish community to help to choose the virtues that we would like to see the school instil and emphasise in our young people.

LIVESTREAMING: Our livestreaming service is up and running, it can be accessed at www.churchservices.tv/lincoln or through the 'web-cam' tab on the parish web-site. Sunday Mass will be at 9am and weekday Mass (Monday-Friday) will usually be at 9.30am although check the newsletter and the on-line schedule for any changes. If you can't make Mass 'live' then a recording will usually be available within an hour of the end of Mass. For the time being Fr Eddy will continue to upload a recording of Mass on the parish YouTube channel as some people find this easier to access and to watch on a TV screen.

Two very generous donations have been received towards the cost of the system. The Coronavirus pandemic will have impacted greatly on many household budgets, but if anyone would like to make a donation towards the cost of the system then please make cheques payable to 'St Peter and St Paul Parish'.

PASTORAL VISITS: The latest government rules permit people to meet outdoors as long as they observe social distancing. Fr Eddy is happy to make arrangements to visit parishioners in their gardens for spiritual/pastoral conversations if people would appreciate them. At this stage it is not possible to bring Holy Communion because of the social distancing requirements.
